

OLD SCHOOL CHUMS

OR WILL I MEET MY OLD LOVE IN THE HIGH SCHOOL ABOVE.

HEWER'S
MUSIC STORE,
WOODSTOCK, ONT.

WORDS
&
MUSIC BY

SUNG WITH GREAT SUCCESS BY "HEWER'S QUARTETTE"

WILLIAM WESTBROOK

STAR EDITION.
HARRY H. SPARKS. MUSIC PUBLISHER.
TORONTO, CANADA.

SONG OF THE CENTURY

A handful of Maple Leaves.

Valse Moderato.

Words and Music by Will Westbrook.

PIANO.

The musical score is written for piano in 3/4 time, featuring a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of three systems of music. The first system includes a piano introduction with a melody in the right hand and a harmonic accompaniment in the left hand, marked with mf and poco a poco rit. The second system begins the vocal melody with two verses: '1. A Can-a-di-an maid in a vill-age is' and '2. A Can-a-di-an boy in South Af-ri-ca'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady eighth-note pattern. The third system continues the vocal melody with the lyrics: 'seen with deep care on her fair young face For her / lay with the mor-tal-ly wound-ed men And he'. The piano accompaniment features a more active eighth-note melody in the right hand. The final system concludes the piece with the lyrics: 'lov-er has left her to fight for the King and his ab-sence has / sighed for the loved ones at home far a-way and the sweetheart he'll'. The piano accompaniment provides a simple harmonic support.

1. A Can-a-di-an maid in a vill-age is
2. A Can-a-di-an boy in South Af-ri-ca seen with deep care on her fair young face For her lay with the mor-tal-ly wound-ed men And he lov-er has left her to fight for the King and his ab-sence has sighed for the loved ones at home far a-way and the sweetheart he'll

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada in the year 1901 by H. H. SPARKS at the Department of Agriculture.
U. S. Copyright 1901 by H. H. SPARKS.

FOR SALE AT ALL MUSIC STORES

OLD SCHOOL CHUMS

or

Old Time Reveries.

HEWER'S

MUSIC STORE,
WOODSTOCK, ONT.

Words and Music by Wm. Westbrook.

Andante moderato.

VOICE.

PIANO.

Con espressione.

1. Sad at heart I re-call by-gone
2. And a vis-ion I see of the
3. And one loved face is dear-er than years to-night, and the scenes that I knew as a child— When the old school grounds, where we played all those old fashioned games— And each all the rest, lit-tle sweet-hearts were we long a-go— But the

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada in the year 1902 by H. H. Sparks at the Department of Agriculture.

Copyright 1902 by H. H. Sparks.

Sparks & Co. Ltd.

young heart was hap - py and life seemed so bright and dame na - ture in ev'ry sea - son bright youth - ful face re - in - ha - bits the place while re - call - ing their half for - got - ten young spir - it found its e - ter - nal rest in the blush of life's ear - ly morn - ing

colla voce

smiled, There a - mid oth - erscenes stands the dear old school, And a names, And I think of the teach - ers so earn - est and true Who re - glow, And tho' now I am fad - ed old fash - ioned and gray Still this flood of re - mem - brance then comes As I see my old class ev' - ry galed us with les - sons and sums Whose dis - plea - sure we feared but whose pray'r from my heart ev - er comes In the High school a - bove may I f p

lad ev'ry lass that I knew as my old school chums.
 mem'ry's re - vered in the hearts of those old school chums.
 meet my last love with the rest of my old school chums.

rall.

Refrain. Tempo di Valse.

For mem'-ry will turn back-ward, To the friends we used to know As we sit a-lone and ponder on the days of long a-go May old friend-ships ties grow stronger As the swift years come and go for the boys and girls of Auld Lang Syne are the de-ar-est friends we know.

STAR EDITION OF POPULAR MUSIC VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL 10c.

FOR SALE AT ALL MUSIC STORES

- Freaks of Blackville, - - - - - Dalbey
A Southern characteristic cake walk march that is unique and catchy, introducing the bass solo so much sought after by pianists and public alike.
- Hello Central give me Heaven, - - - - - Chas. K. Harris
Another beautiful ballad by America's most successful writer, Chas. K. Harris, who has launched in the above a song that will compare favorably with his former successes.
- The Honeysuckle and the Bee, - - - - - Fits & Penn
A pretty love ditty that we can pronounce a great hit and a good song which merits the tremendous demand which it is having.
- My Genuine Georgia Girl, - - - - - Starr & Roberts
A coon song that stands at the top. For originality in words and music the song cannot be best. Sung by the original "Georgia coon shouter," Miss Artie Hall.
- I've a Longing in my Heart for You, Louise, - - - - - C. K. Harris
50,000 copies already sold of Mr. Harris' reigning success.
- Bring Your Money Home, - - - - - Harry L. Miller
A coon song being sung with great success by Clarence Vance the Southern singer. This song is a general favorite with all who have heard it.
- Indeed, - - - - - Trevelyan
A ballad of exceptional beauty in melody and verse. A ballad that time will not wear.
- Your the Only One, - - - - - Smith & Keiser
There are other popular songs but this is the only one. Everybody is whistling this pretty waltz song and a programme is not complete without the above as it meets with popular favor.
- Everything at Reilly's must be done in Irish Style, - - - - - Wm. West
In the home or on the stage the man who sings an Irish song is the man who makes a hit. This song is making thousands smile and you'll be the next.
- I do not ask your pity Sweet Estelle, - - - - - Monroe Rosenfeld
"If you have only pity to give me for my love, I'll simply take your hand and say good-bye."
This beautiful ballad is the feature of Haverley's Minstrels.
- When Knighthood was in Flower, - - - - - L. V. Gustin
WALTZES
A merited set of waltzes by the composer of "Daughter of the Regiment," who writes to please the popular taste.
- Coon! Coon! Coon! - - - - - Jefferson & Friedman
A coon song with rag-time arrangement, sung with great success by Eddie Leonard, the warm baby from the south.
- Strike Up the Band Here Comes a Sailor, - - - - - Sterling & Ward
One of the best and most popular characteristic songs ever published, introducing the Sailor's Hornpipe, which follows a striking song and chorus. Featured by every soloist and orchestra in the country.
- The Purple Lady, - - - - - Essa Noble
WALTZES
A pretty set of waltzes, masterful in arrangement but not difficult and bearing a sweet strain from introduction to finale.
- You Needn't make 'dem Goo-Goo Eyes, - - - - - Thos. D. Buick
If popularity and large sales denote a good coon song then the above must be the best, as the sales have been enormous and everybody is talking about 'dem goo-goo eyes.
- Love's Confession, - - - - - Grimm
WALTZES
A set of waltzes above the average, each part bright and pretty and retaining the dreaminess of a summer revel in its richness.
- Say Liza will you be my honey, - - - - - Estren and Bryman
A bright catchy ethiopian love song with a pleasing melody. Sung with great applause in the "Telephone Girl" by Miss Mabel Rite.
- In the Whirl of Society, - - - - - Theodore Brill
WALTZES
A pretty set of waltzes, each part catchy, graceful and inviting, while the melody is rich throughout.
- A Picture No Artist Can Paint, - - - - - Fred. J. Helf
To hear this song which has a pretty waltz chorus is to picture in vision the welcome home of the absent ones. This is one of the season's hits.
- On the Old Missouri Shore, - - - - - Hattie Nevada
A sweet little story in song with a pretty pickaninny-lullaby refrain. This ballad is by the composer of "Letter Edged in Black" which has had such a large sale.
- The Mother of the Girl I Love, - - - - - W. B. Gray
The theme of this song is entirely original with the composer of "Church Across the Way" and ranks among his best compositions.
- 'Mid the Green Fields of Virginia, - - - - - Chas. K. Harris
A ballad which appeals to all alike, and brings visions of the ivy covered cottage and the old folks at home.
- Forgotten, - - - - - A. E. Foley and G. A. Watts
A pretty descriptive song of the forgotten sweetheart for a fairer bride.
- Campin' on 'De Ole Sawanee, - - - - - Lee Ocean Smith
MARCH, TWO-STEP, POLKA and CAKE WALK
This composition from a musical standpoint is pronounced by judges to excel the famed "Georgia Camp-meeting" as a characteristic cake-walk, etc.
- My Old New Hampshire Home, - - - - - Sterling & Von Tilser
A beautiful ballad, pure in theme, relating a lover's parting in an old New England village.
- The Choir Boy, - - - - - Paul Armstrong
A popular sacred ballad that should be in every home in America. The arrangement being easy and melodious.
- I've Just Come Back to Say Good-bye - - - - - Chas. K. Harris
This song by the composer of "Break the News to Mother," is after his well known style, easy and tuneful, relating a story of a loving husband's mistake.
- Pictures from Life's Other Side, - - - - - Chas. Baer
A beautiful ballad describing the tragical scenes enacted in life. One of the best descriptive songs ever written.
- Sing Again that Sweet Refrain, - - - - - Gussie L. Davis
A sentimental ballad by America's greatest song writer. This is one of his best compositions and a song that will live for years.
- I Love You in the Same Old Way, - - - - - Ford and Bratton
CHORUS—Darling, Sue dear, how I miss you laughing,
Seemed to me it sounded like the birds at play,
Darling Sue dear don't believe I'm chaffing,
Bless your heart I love you in the same old way.
- Just in the Same Old Way, - - - - - Raymon Moore
A pretty ballad with words inspiring and quite out of the common. This song is a general favorite with all who have heard it.
- Nigger Nigger Never Die, - - - - - Osborne and Sylvester
A pickaninny story with a side-splitting chorus, relating how the negro kid is abused by the white trash at school.
- Sweet Liza, - - - - - M. Deane
To lovers of coon songs the above is indispensable in your repertoire. Melodious, cake walk time, and the kind you all like to join in.
- My Mary Dear, - - - - - Fred J. Hamill
Just a simple ballad pure and sweet, which you could not help but like, and it always brings with it the same endearing effect.
- It Don't Seem Like the Same Old Smile, - - - - - J. Thornton
Just a little quarrel and the same old smile is gone.
- I'll Make That Black Gal Mine, - - - - - Chas. B. Ward
A coon song whistled and played by all lovers of Ethiopian songs. There is more coon in this song than any ever published.
- I Want My Lulu, - - - - - Lew Dockstater
A good darkey song by America's greatest minstrel and negro impersonator. This song is sung nightly with great applause.
- My Honolulu Queen, - - - - - O'Dea and Penn
A coon song featured by Anna Held, the bewitching soubrette, and performed nightly by her with great success.
- Hannah's Promenade, - - - - - Henry Jacob Ellis
MARCH, TWO-STEP
Played by the principal bands throughout Canada and the United States. The most popular instrumental piece ever published.
- Alabama Camp Meeting, - - - - - F. A. Miller
MARCH, TWO-STEP, POLKA and CAKE WALK
This march was not intended to be part of the religious exercises at an Alabama camp meeting, but when the young folks got together they felt as if they needed some amusement. A cake walk was suggested in a quiet place near by—hence this music.
- Th Last Roll Call, - - - - - Chas. Osborne
The survivor's story of how they fought side by side till every foe was conquered. A descriptive war song with a pretty waltz refrain.
- There Is No Flag Like the Red, White and Blue, - - - - - Chas. K. Harris
A patriotic song of some merit by the composer of the universal hit "Break the News to Mother." The prelude introduces the bugle call and drums with good effect.

HARRY H. SPARKS, Music Publisher, - Toronto

83232